11., [redacted] Met with Representative Albert H. Quie (R., Minn.) and gave him some suggestions which had been made by SR Division in connection with his correspondence with a Soviet student who contacted Quie when he was in the Soviet Union with Representative Edith Green's Education Subcommittee of the House Education and Labor Committee. Quie was most appreciative of these suggestions. He gave me copies of his and the Subcommittee's reports on their trip to Russia which he plans to send to this student and asked for any suggestions we might give him in his letter forwarding these materials to him. They are being referred to [redacted]
